Full Bio

Kathleen Buckstaff lives with her husband and three children in the San Francisco Bay area. In addition to writing columns, plays, and books, Kathleen works as a performance artist. With the help of Artistic Director Carol MacLeod, Kathleen wrote a one-woman play using the e-mails, letters, columns and diary entries contained in The Tiffany Box, a memoir.

“The Tiffany Box, a love remembered” opened at the Theatre Artists Studio in Phoenix, AZ on November 4, 2010. Kathleen performed the play to sold-out theatres in Phoenix and San Francisco. She performed the play again in New York City as part of a solo festival and “The Tiffany Box” was honored as one of the most outstanding plays.

Kathleen received her BA in English and Creative Writing from Stanford, and her MA in Journalism from Stanford. Her columns have been published in the Los Angeles Times, The Arizona Republic, Sun Literary Magazine, and The San Francisco Chronicle.
